JOHOR BARU: As the number of evacuees continued to rise, help for the flood victims has poured in.

Among those who lent a hand was the state Umno Youth wing, which is collecting food supplies and other essential items for the victims.

Umno Youth Exco and Pulai Youth chief Abdullah Md Yusof said his team would source donations from the private sector.

Among companies that have come forward to donate are Adabi, Nestle, Mydin, Kicap Jalen as well as the state farmer's association.

Abdullah said that the Youth wing would also be handing over its own contributions today.
