

OMINOUS SIGN

WHITE patches on this MTSAT Asia Topology satellite image, captured at 8.30pm, show intense cloud development over the west coast and southern parts of Peninsular Malaysia as well as over the South China Sea. Heavy rain is expected over the area where the clouds have formed.

Red alert

STAR
22/12/00

Six people die in Johor

Three drown in Segamat, two in Kluang and an elderly woman dies while waiting to be evacuated

Floods now in 6 states

Terengganu and Kelantan are the latest states to be hit as the number of evacuees rise to over 60,000 people

Klang Valley may be next

The Meteorological Dept issues Red Stage warning for Kuala Lumpur and southern Selangor. Heavy rain is expected to last till Sunday

GET US OUT OF HERE: Two residents climbing onto a wall to escape the rising flood waters in Kota Tinggi, Johor, as household items and debris float out to the front yard from their homes. They were later rescued and taken to a relief centre: More reports and pictures in Pages 3, 4, 6 and 41.