

Floodwaters recede in Kedah, Perlis

ALOR STAR: The special relief committee on floods will meet tomorrow to discuss ways to coordinate efforts to help flood victims. Floodwaters have receded in many parts of Kedah and Perlis, allowing many victims to return home. In Kedah, only 7,288 evacuees from 1,783 families remained at 14 relief centres in the Kota Setar district and 4,364 from 1,221 families at 11 temporary shelters in Kubang Pasu district yesterday. On Tuesday, there were about 16,000 evacuees who remained at 41 centres. As of yesterday, in Perlis, there are still 1,908 evacuees at the 14 temporary shelters.