

Kampung Gergaji is flooded after Sungai Golok breached its danger level yesterday. — NST picture by Fathil Asri

4-year-old feared drowned

DUNGUN: A 4-year-old girl went missing after she fell into a monsoon drain at Kampung Kubang Kelat in Seberang Pintasan near here yesterday.

District police chief Superintendent Dahlan Mohd Noor said Durani Arfah Masrol was playing with her sister, Durani Alma, 7, and friends about 1.30pm when she fell into the drain which had overflowed after several days of heavy rain.

In Kemaman, 63 villagers from Kampung Teladas and Kampung Tanjung Air Putih, who were evacuated on Thursday night because of rising flood waters, were allowed to return home yesterday.

Several low-lying areas in the villages were submerged between 0.5m and 1m of water after continuous rain since Wednesday.

District police chief Superintendent Abdullah Sani Salat said the victims were evacuated to a multipurpose hall in Kampung Teladas on Thursday.

Kampung Teladas was cut off from Air Putih town when the bridge linking the two areas was submerged.

Air Putih state assemblyman Wan Abdul

Hakim Wan Mokhtar, who visited the victims, said a flood operations room was opened in Kampung Teladas to monitor the situation.

In Kuantan, flood evacuees who sought shelter at SK Sungai Karang Darat near here were allowed to return home yesterday.

On Thursday, 64 people from 14 families in Kampung Sungai Karang Darat were sent to the primary school when their houses were partially submerged.

A spokesman at the state police operations centre said the stretch between Km18 and Km23 of Jalan Gebeng-Kuantan near Bukit Pengorak, which was closed earlier because of floods, had been reopened.

Kelantan is bracing for a third wave of floods after Sungai Golok breached its danger level yesterday. The water level was at 9.75m as of 7pm yesterday, which was 0.74m above the danger level.

More than 10 villages along the border were flooded and three families from Kampung Kual were evacuated.

The other affected villages include Kampung Lubok Gong, Kampung Gergaji and Kampung Baung.