

FLOODS A WAY OF LIFE HERE

Rohani Kader Gani, 43, tending to her nieces Zulaikha Rizuan, 7 (right) and Adawiyah, 4, who were forced to eat their lunch in their flooded kitchen in Kampung Manis, Prai, Penang, yesterday. They were among 80 residents in the village whose homes were flooded in knee-deep water. Flooding has been a recurring problem for the villagers for the past three decades. This year alone, the village was hit six times. Pic by Ramdzan Masiam
